The Crucible

Study Guide

Student Copy

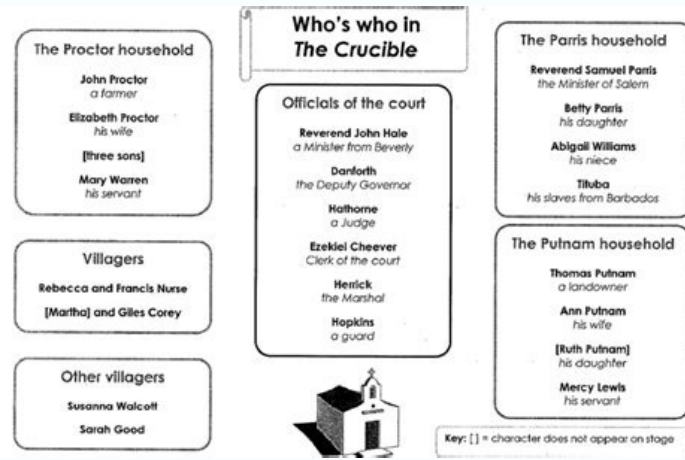

The setting is Salem, Massachusetts, in the year 1692. Someone once said of the Puritans that they did not leave Europe because they were persecuted, but that they were thrown out of Europe because they persecuted everyone else. As you read Miller's stage direction in the opening of Act I, how do you suppose he would respond to that statement?

He has taken her in and she has done something which could cause his ruin. Describe Proctor Proctor is a strong, fit, confident even-tempered man who is in his thirties. They admit that they were bewitched and started naming people they had seen with the devil. She wants her to tell the truth about what happened in the woods. Ann Putnam accused Rebecca of bewitching her newborn babies (saying she was responsible for deaths). The deed to his house and firewood in addition to his salary. He was calm and an arbitrator. Identify Abigail Williams Abigail was Parris' niece. This is similar to how they place their faith in the girls and the girls become weighted with authority although they (the girls) have information that is not substantiated. Explain the political relationship between the Putnam and Nurse Families. She had a fit and the only explanation is the presence of witchcraft. His niece's flirting with witchcraft would give his enemies more ammunition against him. government of a state by immediate divine guidance or by officials who are regarded as divinely guided Who is the author of the book? What is the setting of the book? What happened between Abigail and John Proctor prior to the opening of the play? He doesn't like Paris because he is too concerned with material wealth and doesn't talk about God enough (he only speaks of fire and brimstone). His candidate for minister was rejected and he could not break his father's will. Thank you very much for your cooperation. She could not stand to hear the Lord's name Identify Francis Nurse. Hale says, "They [the books] must be [heavy]; they are weighted with authority." What is the significance of this remark? Mary suspects if they lies continue, the punishment could be far worse than it would be now (spanking and reprimanding). Predestination was God's manner of identifying one's "calling." What is Theocracy? Parris was having troubles before the story began and was trying to keep everything together. He believed he was intellectually superior and was frustrated when he didn't get his way. Salem, Massachusetts What does Puritan mean? An analogy exists between their faith in the books and the faith in the Bible. Who is Rev. Francis was greatly respected by people from the village. Giles says, "Think on it now, it's a deep thing, and dark as a pit." To what is he referring literally and symbolically? Every a spect of their life was seen in relation to God's will. John Hale, and why does he come to Salem? "There are wheels within wheels in this village and fires within fires." Explain There are many political and personal grudges held among the people of Salem. Why is Thomas Putnam bitter? Many of her babies have died and the only successful child (Ruth) was acting odd. Her parents were killed by Indians so she lived with Parris. Literally he is talking about people not getting along. Why does Mrs. She stood over her and quieted her. The people put their faith in a book filled with information that is not well proven about the devil and witchcraft. They apparently had an affair. Married to Rebecca Nurse Identify Rebecca Nurse Rebecca, his wife, was a good, kind, gentle woman who helped deliver some of the Puritan babies. What is Proctor's reason for his not regularly attending church? The Putnams didn't like the Nurses because of some land disputes. They argue about lumber and the ownership of land. "So now they and their church found it necessary to deny any other sect its freedom, lest their New Jerusalem be defiled and corrupted by wrong and deceitful ideas." What is the irony in that statement? What did Rebecca do to Betty? What is Rebecca's explanation of the girls' behavior? Thank you for your participation! He is an expert on witchcraft and comes to the town to help rid it of witches. Parris says, "Oh Abigail, what proper payment for my charity! Now I am undone!" What does that mean? To what did Tituba confess? What was the "sign" that Betty was bewitched? What does Parris want? What does this show? She late confesses to being a witch to save her life. What is Mary's argument to Abby? Why? Symbolically, he is talking about their system of theocracy seems to be failing. The Puritans came to this country for religious freedom, but they then persecuted others for their religion which made the colony almost as bad as the place they had left Explain how the witch-hunt years were a time of "general revenge." The Puritans were under such strict laws that when the witch hunts started, they didn't repress their anger anymore and got revenge for whatever squabbles they had. Putnam believe there are witches in Salem? Identify Betty Betty was Parris' daughter. What do Putnam and Proctor argue about? She confessed that she conjured spirits, met with the devil and signed his book because if she didn't confess she would have been hanged. She believes they made up the whole story for attention and in a few days the whole thing will be forgotten. Putnam is a devious, land-grabbing man. Advocated a practice of Christianity that they considered to be in keeping with the that which Christ had intended. She was very involved in the witch hunt and got revenge on many people in the village; especially Elizabeth Proctor because she wanted to marry her husband. What do the girls do at the end of Act One? He is a farmer.
